IRVING LITERARY UNION.

The Third Anniversary of the Irving Literary Union was celebrated on Tuesday evening, at Hope Chapel, in the presence of a fair audience.

After a brief introductory by WILLIAM H. MOORE, President of the Society, the exercises were continued in the following order: Essay, "Blas Laws of Connecticut," LEWIS BEACH, Essay, "Inconstancies," W. JEROME COOPER, Essay, "Americanisms," GEORGE W. STURTEVANT, Essay, "Chivalry," J. O. GATES, Poem, "Utopia," JOSEPH LAMB, "Dorothy's Band" was in attendance, and delivered the exercises by the performance of a variety of choice selections. The speeches were well received by the audience.

TEMPERANCE MEETING IN THE NINTH WARD.

One of the largest and most interesting Temperance meetings which has convened for some time past was held on the evening of the 28th, in the Blocker Building in Blocker St. Every seat and available place in the large hall was occupied by ladies and gentlemen friendly to the temperance cause. Doctor MILLER presided.

The Hon. E. D. CULVER was introduced, and delivered an address principally upon the Maine Law, and upon the success of the temperance people in the recent election.

Resolutions approving of the conduct of the member of Assembly, Alderman and Councilman recently elected in the Ninth Ward, and agreeing to sustain the latter in their refusal to grant licenses in that Ward, were adopted; when the meeting was addressed by the Rev. J. B. WARE, of the Janet Methodist Church, and by the Rev. A. McKENNA, of the Downing St. Baptist Church.

How Old Brandy is Obtained.—Mr. SNOW said that in Indiana and other of the western States an immense quantity of the vilest of Whiskeys is made and sold for 25 cents per gallon; the Whiskey is returned to the country about 50 cents per gallon. A United States Custom House Officer informed Mr. SNOW that on Monday he attended to the shipment of 150 hogsheads of this whiskey, which is destined to France to be manufactured into brandy, and again returned to this country.

Supervisor HOWARD—I should like the Sixth District of the Sixth Ward disposed of now, Mr. President.

The President.—It will be recollected that the Supervisor of the Sixth Ward presented an affidavit from the Inspectors of the Sixth District in relation to the returns from that District, stating that where the initials only of certain candidates were returned the ballots contained the names in full; for instance, where it was returned "F. Wood," the ballot was for Fernando Wood.

Supervisor BLUNT called for the reading of the affidavit.

The President read the affidavit referred to. [This affidavit was printed in our report of the eleventh day's session, and published in the papers of Monday last. It contains 27 corrections of the character described.]

Supervisor HOWARD moved that the corrections be made in accordance with affidavit.

Supervisor BLUNT seconded the motion, which was unanimously adopted.

The affidavit from the Inspectors of the Third District of the same Ward was disposed of in the same way the correction made in accordance therewith, the chairman of the Board, being from "William Bunker" to "Richard Bunker."

Supervisor WILLIAM TRUCKER presented an affidavit from the Inspectors of the Seventh District of the Eighth Ward, stating that the votes returned for "George Pekon," for Member of Congress, were batted for "Guy R. Pelton."

Supervisor HOWARD—I move that the name of "George" be taken out and "Guy R." placed on record instead.

The motion was unanimously adopted.

The counting-up and signing the returns for the several Wards having proceeded for some time.

Supervisor HOWARD presented an affidavit from the Inspectors of the Eleventh Ward, stating that the County Clerk for James P. Sanders for the office of Inspector of State Prison, were omitted on the return presented by the Supervisor. The correction having been made, the return was received and the votes recorded as follows:

Supervisor HOWARD—I move, Mr. President, that the three votes recorded for "Mike Walsh" be given to Mike Walsh, as they were evidently intended for him.

Supervisor KELLY had no objection to the correction being made, provided the three votes were given to Mike Walsh, which was quite as likely to have been intended for him as those given to "Mike Walsh" were to have been intended for Mike Walsh.

Supervisor HOWARD—The record says Walsh, not Walsh.

Supervisor KELLY—It was Walsh on the Inspectors' returns, however it may be recorded by the Secretary.

The Inspectors' returns were examined; and the President said—This is the return of the Fourth Congressional District. It records, very plainly, two votes for "Mike Walsh," and one for "Mike Walsh."

Supervisor HOWARD—Then, Mr. Chairman, I move that the three votes be given to Mike Walsh. I have no motive in making this motion, but to do justice. I consider that "right wrongs no man." If Mr. Walsh received these votes his ought to have them, and they should not be taken away from him. My conscientious scruples will not allow me to sign a paper depriving him of his right.

After further discussion the three votes were recorded for Mike Walsh, the resolution being unanimously adopted; and Supervisor KELLY remarking, that he had quite sufficient votes for his purpose without depriving his opponent of any which could be supposed as belonging to him.

The footing-up and signing of official returns was proceeded with for some time. After which Supervisor BLUNT said: I would ask the Clerk which of the Supervisors have footed up and signed the returns of their respective Wards? The Clerk accordingly announced that the returns had been footed up and signed by the following Supervisors:
